

ANTITRUST STATEMENT | DPL

The participants of ABIMED's meetings, whether in person or virtually, in its facilities or out of them, declare to know the restrictions of the antitrust regulations.

Thus, no agreements or actions that could affect competition in the medical device industry or any other industry will be discussed. This prohibition includes the exchange of information on prices, fees, coverage, commercial practices or any other competitive aspect of the operational conduct of ABIMED's member companies, and of external participants, individuals or legal entities, present at the meetings.

Any participant must alert in case of identifying a conduct contrary to this statement in order to prevent and avoid any discussion of the forbidden topics.

The sensitive data and information provided will be treated as determined by the General Law of Protection of Personal Data (Law No. 13.709/2018), the Bylaws and Code of Conduct of ABIMED, as well as other relevant legal provisions.

ABIMED - Brazilian Association of the Health is not in a position to give definitive advice on matters concerning the law and you should always consult your legal advisors on these matters. ABIMED - Brazilian Association of the Health will not be liable for any errors, omissions or misleading or other statements in this communication whether negligent or otherwise.
